

“Like its predecessor it contains valuable material and commentary presented in an accessible way. It will continue to be a valuable resource for practitioners.” Mr Justice Burnett

The Corporate Manslaughter and Corporate Homicide Act 2007, has created a new offence of corporate manslaughter. This new edition of Corporate Liability: Work Related Deaths and Criminal Prosecutions is the only book to provide, in a single source, an expert guide to general procedure and practice surrounding this topic.

Key content includes analysis of how the law affects:

- Investigations by the Police and HSE
- Construction
- Transport
- The Chemical Industry
- Oil and Gas
- Healthcare
- Waste Management
- Environmental Liability (including Nuclear)

This 2nd edition covers crucial recent high profile cases and contains invaluable new commentary on international and European perspectives as well as new chapters covering:

- Local Authorities
- Scotland
- Ireland

Corporate Liability: Work Related Deaths and Criminal Prosecutions, 2nd edition provides indispensable advice for all those practising in criminal law as well as Health & Safety and Health Care Professionals. No company director or manager should be without this on their bookshelf.

Gerard Forlin is a barrister at 2-3 Gray's Inn Square and was educated at the LSE and Trinity Hall, Cambridge. He specialises in health and safety and corporate and gross negligence, manslaughter, disaster litigation, transport and environmental law.

Gerard has recently been ranked in five areas of the leading directories including health and safety, environmental, crime, consumer and public inquiries and inquests. He is ranked by Chambers and Partners 2010 for his work in both crime and health and safety, for which he is ranked as a joint top junior, and is singled out as a joint top junior for his work in health and safety in the most recent edition of the Legal 500. Gerard has been involved in over 250 fatality cases appearing in the vast majority of pivotal cases in this field in the last ten years, and has undertaken more than 150 jury inquests in both the UK and abroad. Gerard acts globally.

Louise Smail has extensive experience in the field of risk management, contingency and emergency planning with a wide range of organisations, including local government, police, manufacturing and many train operating companies. Louise specialises in the practical application of health and safety and environment law and its relationship to risk.

Louise is a Chartered Member of the Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (CMIOSH) and writes and lectures extensively. She is the Consultant Editor of Health and Safety at Work Newsletter (published by Bloomsbury Professional).
